Jose,

I called you on July 27, left a voicemail for you in which I told you I was calling about this very topic and you have never returned my call. If you will be around, I can call you at 3:30 Eastern.

Keith,

It's been a couple of weeks and I haven't heard back from you re: the documents I requested. You were going to look into this and get back to me. Thanks!

Kind regards,

Jose G. Santiago, Esq.

Jose,

I haven't heard back yet but should do so today and will call you right after. I have asked the client whether they have the postings that we discussed in our phone call and to send to me so that I can review and possibly produce. I expect to get back to you today.

Keith,

Just following up regarding our conversation regarding documents related to issuance of overtime hours to warehouse workers. As we discussed, I need those documents in order to effectively depose defendants' witnesses.

Kind regards,

Jose G. Santiago, Esq.

Jose,

I left you a message this morning about scheduling Maria Suarez's deposition for July 27 or 28 because she is unavailable for deposition before then. I also mentioned that I wanted to talk about scheduling John Wilkonson's deposition. Please give me a call when you have a chance so that we can finalize. Thanks.
